The Privacy Rule generally requires healthcare providers to take reasonable steps to limit the use or disclosure of and requests for Personal Health Information (PHI) to the minimum necessary to accomplish the intended purpose. These provisions do not apply to uses or disclosures made pursuant to an authorization requested by the individual. Healthcare entities must keep records of PHI disclosures. Information provided below, if completed properly, will constitute an adequate record. Note: In an emergency, uses and disclosures may be permitted without prior consent. Disclosures for treatment, payment or care given by this or another healthcare facility do not need to be logged. Disclosures that must be logged include: Judicial/Law Enforcement, Public Health, Funeral Director, Public Safety, or as required by law.
